

Business Services

The First Nations Adult Education School Council offers companies the opportunity to give their employees the necessary tools to improve their skills through our Business Services.

This is a great tool to empower employees and discuss sensitive topics, while increasing their knowledge, productivity and the company's profits.

The First Nations Adult Education School Council's Business Service will:

- Identify and analyze your training needs
- Organize, evaluate and follow-up on the training
- Evaluate the extracurricular acquired competencies
- Offer organizational diagnosis
- Offer work environment analysis
- Offer measuring tools for the success of the training program
- And much more...
